Daughters of the King a Christian order of women and girls whose members have committed to the Rules of Prayer and Service. Our members are in various stages of our Christian journey with the shared goal of knowing Jesus and making Him known to others.

If you are interested in learning more about our order, we invite you to attend a brief meeting on February 2nd, so we may gauge interest in beginning a discernment process for our members.

We will meet at 11:30 AM on February 2nd, in the Scheel Parlor, to discuss the process and answer your questions.
